IMPORTANT NEWS QUICKLY TOLD

The Latest Gleanings From All Over the State

THINGS SEEN AND HEARD

Danville.—Danville had sixty-one births and forty-one deaths in July, vital statistics published by the city health officer indicated. Of the total number of births, forty-eight were white people, boys predominating.

Charlottesville.—Charles Jones, Jr., who was shot at Dillwyn, R. D. Gregory being jailed, charged with the shooting, is expected to recover, it was announced from the University Hospital. Two bullets struck Jones, causing wounds in the left breast and in the abdomen.

Harrisonburg.—One hundred and twenty bass in eight days fishing in the south branch of the Shenandoah River is the record hung up by Jason Rasbperry, Woodstock sports man. Included in four days' catch were eight bass that weighed from three and a quarter to four pounds each.

Danville. — Leonard Moore, 21, was possibly mortally injured here when he fell from a motor truck, landing on the hard surfaced road, head foremost. He has a fractured skull and remained unconscious all day. Moore was observed lying on the fender of the truck, then moving, trying to make a repair to the engine. He lost his balance and fell, the driver skillfully avoiding crushing him with the wheels.

Salem.—In a special election held here Salem citizens voted a $125,000 bond issue for city improvements, giving the issue a majority of 210 votes. Three hundred and thirty-five votes were cast in favor of the issue and 116 against it. The money will be used as follows: $10,000 for a fire truck and equipment; $5,000 for a playground; $12,350 for sewers; $189,646 for streets.

Radford.—The eleventh anniversary of the dedication of State Teachers' College at Radford, August 9, 1913, was celebrated by a pageant showing the service of the college. There are in the student body of the college students who represent each year of the life of the institution. There are two students, Misses Carrie Greene and Martha Fisher, who were enrolled for the student body in 1913 when it opened. They are now working for their degree.

Williamsburg.—John Jones, lumberman of this place, was injured when the automobile in which he was riding caught fire. The fire had gained considerable headway before it was noticed, a strong breeze whipping the flames toward Jones, who was burned about the hands and arms when he attempted to recover a package from the back seat. It is supposed that sparks from the pipe the man was smoking flew back and ignited the rear cushion of the car.

Pressling.—The Virginia-Kentucky border between Wise and Letcher counties was the scene of a gun battle a day or two since between Officer Sam Hall and his brother, John, on one side, and Will Maggard and a man whose name was not learned, on the other, sought on liquor charges. Sam Hall was shot five times, and is not expected to recover. John Hall and a posse went on the trail of Maggard and his pal, when the battle was renewed, with the result that Maggard was serlously, perhaps fatally, wounded. The other received slight wounds.

Harrisonburg.—The sixth barn destroyed by fire in this section of the Shenandoah Valley this summer burned near Bear Bibbia, in the eastern part of the county, Saturday night when struck by lightning during a severe electrical storm. So far as is known, this is the first severe damage from lightning in these parts this summer. The barn, erected only two years ago, was owned by Chas Koontz. The family returned from a trip to Eastern Virginia only an hour before the building burned. The loss was placed at $3,000, partly covered by insurance. As the grain crops had been recently harvested, the contents included only a quantity of straw and farming implements.

Richmond.—Captain N. M. Fisher, adjutant of the Virginia coast artillery forces, has tendered his resignation as a member of the military committee on Defense Day, basing his action on business relations and the fact that he would, in all probability, be out of the State on the occasion for which he had been named. Captain Fisher says he is deeply interested in the day and its purposes and wishes to see it a great success. Captain Fisher is connected with the State Industrial Commission.

Danville.—Mrs. Robert Oakes, of Climax, Pittsylvania county, reports the development, in her garden, of a sunflower which measures 13 feet 5 inches.

Fredericksburg.—Daughters of the Confederacy of Stafford county have raised a large part of the money needed, and will shortly erect an arch across the State High-way at the point where a road branches off to the old place of worship. The arch is in be put there for the purpose of attracting tourists and weakening an interest in the church, one of oldest and quaintest places of worship in Virginia. The arch will be made ornamental and will bear the name and date of dedication of Old Aquia Church.

Danville.—The bootlegger who hitches the county road carrying his liquor in a pack has been discovered. T. F. Ferguson, of Franklin county, was just completing a long walk from the hilly section when he was captured by a police officer at Schoolfield. A second man with Ferguson made his escape. The arrested man admits that he was bringing the liquor here to sell. The risks which the motor bootlegger encounters are eliminated by the hiker who makes for the bushes when he sees a car coming.

Danville.—Rains experienced during the past few days in this surrounding section, more particularly in Pittsylvania county, have improved the condition of all crops materially. The tobacco growers are today more optimistic over the prospects of the crop than at any time this summer and feel that the general quality of the tobacco will be better than was anticipated a few weeks ago when a protracted drought was beginning to have its effect. In the Shera section of Pittsylvania the tobacco crops are reported by farmers to be the best produced for many years.

Danville.—County authorities admitted inability to clear the mystery in the shooting near Bachelor's Hall of William Winstead and Scott Winstead, negroes, both lying at that point of death with gunshot wounds. Magistrate R. S. Flynt quotes each as saying they were fired on by unknown persons while passing Callahan's Store in an automobile early Sunday, but they do not know who shot them. Last Thursday both negroes were fined $10 for making impertinent remarks to Howard Hardy, white, who was working near Bachelor's Hall. So far, the authorities assert, no clue to the assailants has been secured.

Suffolk.—W. W. Deans, Suffolk police officer, was arrested here, upon his arrival from Gatesville, N. C., on a warrant sworn out by Police Chief W. J. Morgan upon information charging Deans with the murder of William McCoy, a colored man, who was shot while fleeing arrest at the Norfolk and Western station Friday night by Officer Deans. The coroner's jury, which convened Sunday morning after McCoy had died as a result of his wounds at Virginia Hospital, met in adjourned session and brought in the verdict that McCoy came to his death from the wounds inflicted by Police Officer W. W. Deans while McCoy, an unlawful trespasser on the Norfolk and Western train, was fleeing from the said officer. At the time of the shooting Deans declared that McCoy shot at him. Later testimony brought out at the coroner's inquest was that McCoy was unarmed, and that the only shots fired were the three fired by W. W. Deans. Deans was suspended by City Manager R. H. Brinkley, and was permitted to go to visit his family in Gatesville, N. C. He was released for his appearance at a preliminary hearing upon $1,000 bail bond.

Lawrenceville.—John Alley Harris, alias James A. Willard, who is alleged to have shot and mortally wounded Constable J. H. Seago, Brunswick, on the night of May 31, while Brunswick officers were conducting a raid on his house, was brought to Lawrenceville by Sergeant S. R. Broader, of Lawrenceville, and Constable F. G. Forshaw, of Brodnax. County officers had been on the man's trail since time and finally located Harris in Detroit last week. Harris was arrested by Detroit police last Thursday afternoon at his boarding house. Officers Broader and Forshaw left for Detroit Friday morning and readily identified the negro. Constable Seago, on his death bed, said that he shot Harris after Harris had mortally wounded him. Harris says he was shot, but does not know by whom, and that he did not fire a shot, but left the county and changed his name for fear of violence.

Newport News. — Mrs. Dessie Moore, Miss Sophie Moore, her daughter, and Fred and Charlie Moore, sons, and Mr. Dickerson, of Lexington, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Gallagher at their home, in Hampton, narrowly avoided serious injury when the car in which they were returning to their homes turned turtle at the sharp curve at the George Wythe School. In turning the corner at the Hardy Garage, the car turned turtle. All the occupants were badly shaken up.

The Joseph Gallery

In the tall mine at Tyro, Fluvanna, there is a gallery known as the Joseph gallery, where one may hear his voice echoed and re-echoed sixteen times.

VERA

Oh! the wonderful rains we have been having, and how the hearts of the farmers are rejoicing, they have helped the tobacco greatly and have rescued the corn crop from an untimely end.

And we have good roads, thank you, due to the energy and progressiveness of our citizens who got together and worked with a will—the county furnished the machine and several men. Now the thing to do is to keep them good.

The Appomattox Fair which will be from October 15th to 18th inclusive, will be a banner year if every one will take hold with a will and do his part. "Over 50 per cent of our people learn practically all they know by observation." Let "meet me at the Fair" be our slogan and each one bring something to exhibit and see what a fair it will be.

Thanks "North Side" I stand corrected—I will try and not make such a mistake again.

Miss Bell Glover of Buckingham, has been visiting Miss Edna Megginson at the home of T. J. Megginson.

Mrs. Bettie Megginson and grandson, "Billie", of Lynchburg, were guests last week of Mrs. Cornelia Anderson.

Mrs. Daisey Bell was called to Lynchburg Monday to attend the funeral of her brother, Charles Bell, of Richmond, who died very sudenly.

Something like the grip is epidemic in this section—nearly every family in the neighborhood has had a touch of it.

From the trend of the daily papers, it looks very much as if we are not through with war yet. Well the scriptures must be fulfilled and there are many things that point to our day. The most important in man's history. Look at what has transpired in the last five years. The prophecies for the past 6,000 years are focused upon this particular time of trouble now covering the whole earth. When Jesus stood on Mount Olive talking to His disciples about coming events and about the time when His kingdom would be established, He seems to have lifted his finger and pointed to this time. The events of this time verify His prophetic statements about war, famine, pestilence etc., which shall precede the establishment of His kingdom. There are no less than eighty-eight prophetic statements gathered from the Bible that point with index finger to these times.

Mrs. T. A. Drinkard is spending the week in Lynchburg.

Miss Laura Whitten of Lynchburg, is guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Whitten.

Mrs. J. T. Whitten leaves this week for a visit to her daughter, in High Point, N. C.

Mrs. F. E. Jennings and sons spent several days in Lynchburg last week.

EVERGREEN

Messrs. Vance Harvey and Roy Moses left Monday for a business trip to W. Va, by motor.

Misses Lucy and Dorothy Evans of Naruna, are guests of Miss Myrtle Evans.

Mrs. Raymond Fitzgerald and little son of Roanoke, are guests of Mrs. J. R. Hamilton.

Mrs. C. E. Taylor of W. Va., is visiting relatives here.

The W. M. U. of the Baptist church will give a lawn party at Rosegreen Sunday, August 30, beginning at 5 p. m., ice cream, pies, sandwitches, etc., will be served. The public is cordially invited to come and help a good cause.

Subscribe to your county paper.

HIXBURG

The ladies of the Baptist church will give a lawn party Friday evening beginning at 6:30 and a special program will be delivered at 8 o,clock by Miss Anna Foster. Be sure to come to the lawn party and bring your girls and we also invite ye editor.

The automobile in which Mrs. Kaleb Balderin and party of ladies, including one infant, overturned from the high fill on the highway between Prospect and Farmville. The little child fell out in front of the car and was washed-out place, the car rolling directly over the youngster. Fortunately no one was seriously hurt, but the car was a complete wreck. Wiley Wilkerson and Floyd Gilliam came along in opposite direction soon after and took the much-frightened ladies to their homes.

John Fore and friend, Palmer, of Mt. Hope, W. Va., are spending a few days in the home of John's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Fore, near this place, Mrs. Reynolds and two sons, of Richmond are on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Jack Marshall near here.

Our energetic and prosperous farmer, Henry Wheeler, is of late getting to be an expert car driver and the spectators are becoming interesting as to who it is to be, just be patient you will not have to wait too long to see.

Our neighborhood is now boasting of having a belle that is the favorite of all the boys from the teens even to the bachelors and widowers.

The tobacco crop in this section has been greatly improved by the recent rains and some crops bid fair to be better than last year, while some few have been damaged by hail.

Mrs. L. R. Glenn is on a visit to her sons in Roanoke for several weeks and I already hear Mr. Luther speaking in terms not so satisfactory as to house keeping alone, I think he will also go to the mountain next week.

Well, I won't say what the out come will be, but of late an automobile dealer has been to our town several times to see W. D. Hix and if Will gets a Dodge some of the boys will have to take a back seat.

STONEWALL

Mrs. W. H. Drinkard is visiting relatives in Lynchburg this week.

S. E. Anderson and family visited friends in Phenix last week-end.

Tobacco and corn crops have improved considerably since the nice rains Sunday and Monday. Some farmers will cut tobacco this week.

Raleigh Wright, mother and sisters spent the week-end in Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Drinkard of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Drinkard.

Bert Stratton of Alexandria, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Stratten, Jr., and children and E. H. Carson visited friends near Shirwell Sunday.

During the severe storm Sunday afternoon lightning struck Claude Drinkard's house and burned it down without saving a thing except the clothes they were wearing. The house wasn't quite completed, had been living in it only a few months. No insurance on house, but household property insured. Mrs. Routen, Mrs. Drinkard's mother was visiting Drinkard lost barn-loft in the fire. The entire community are distressed over Mr. and Mrs. Drinkard's misfortune. They will appreciate help of any kind.

Mrs. Drinkard is spending the week in Lynchburg.

Superstitious

Actresses, as a rule, are very superstitious. A very lucky omen is for a drink of carmine grease-paint to get accidentally smeared on the teeth while "making-up" for the lips. She wipes it off most carefully and lovingly.

U.S. Royal Cords

BALLOON ~ BALLOON-TYPE ~ HIGH PRESSURE

Built of Latex-treated Cords

TIRE building took a big step forward when the makers of United States Tires invented the Latex Process.

The added strength and wearing quality given by Latex-treated cords is something that the user of Royal Cords can tell you about from his own experience.

Royal Cords are the standard of value in cord tire equipment—even more certainly today than ever before.

And this holds good whether you are considering a High Pressure Plain Balloon Type Tire to fit your present wheels and rims, or a Balloon Tire for a 20 or 21 inch wheel.

Utmost Driving Confidence

Driving a Ford is so simple, and requires so little effort that you are free to devote all your attention to the problems of traffic. There is a sense of confidence in driving a Ford, impossible with any more complicated motor car.
